

Casper
Weinberger
Army

Casper Weinberger

Aug 18, 1917 - Mar 28, 2006

BIRTHPLACE: San Francisco, CA

SOLDIER DETAILS

HIGHEST RANK: Captain

DIVISION: Army, 41st Infantry Division

THEATER OF OPERATION: Pacific

MILITARY HONORS: Bronze Star

HONORED BY: The Eisenhower Foundation

BIOGRAPHY

Caspar Weinberger was a prominent Statesman and Businessman. He served for three decades most notably as Secretary of Defense under Ronald Reagan. Weinberger attended Harvard in 1934 and enlisted in the Army in 1941. His time in the Pacific was spent as a Lt. Sargent in Australia, New Guinea and The Philippines. At the end of the war he served on General McArthur's intelligence staff as a Captain. Courtesy of the legion.org and The Greatest Generation by Tom Brokaw